Economic Growth (compared to second quarter of 2018)

GDP at constant (2010) prices for the second quarter of 2019 estimated as Rs. 2,315,995 Million

Economic growth rate is the percentage change of real GDP and it measures the quantitative expansion of an economy.

GDP at constant prices (Base: 2010)
Second Quarter 2010-2019

Growth rates of major sectors

- Agriculture: 1.0%
- Industry: 1.4%
- Services: 1.6%
- Taxes less subsidies on products: 2.6%

GDP of an economy is a measure in monetary terms of production of all goods and services, counted without duplication, for all resident producer units (industries) located within the economic borders of a country during a given period of time. It is a tool that can be used to measure the size of an economy. GDP at constant (2010) prices for the second quarter of 2019 estimated as Rs. 2,315,995 Million.